TRI DELTA RALLY—MANY PROMINENT MEMBERS BACK ON VISIT.

Entertainments that Reflect the Greatest Honor on the School.
Every One a Social Triumph.

The members of Delta Delta Delta gave their last rush party Saturday evening. The following girls were the guests of the Tri-Delta girls: Viola Radford, Elizabeth Gregory, Helen Ake, Thelma Hyers, Reva Fletcher, Mary Reed, Hilda Budd, Ethel Sholtz, Louise Rogers, Gladys Hon, Wyletta Elliott, and Elio Harris.

Quite a few of the old members were back to visit the chapter, Mrs. Walter Liddell, Mrs. Helen Taylor Brown, Misses Blanche Wise and Martha Brotherton from Jacksonville, Miss Wilma and Miss Ella May Davis from St. Augustine, Misses Olive Link and Dora Pelot from Arcadia and Miss Norma Duggan of Miami.

The patronesses of Tri Delta, Mrs. Woodall, Mrs. Fountain, Miss Leonard, Mrs. Landis, and Mrs. Walters, with Mrs. Rosa and Mrs. C. R. M. Sheppard, entertained the chapter and its guests with a dinner at the Lexington. The dining room was prettily decorated with flowers and asparagus. The favors were hand painted pansy booklets, containing the menu and the program for the evening.

After the dinner the guests were taken to the home of Mrs. Landis. At the porch steps Miss Mary Walters supplied each couple with an envelope of money, enough to buy theatre tickets and refreshments. The guests then passed by a ticket window where any seats from box seats to "peanut heaven" might be purchased.

The first number on the program was the presentation of a birthday cake to Mrs. V. M. Fountain, in token of her birthday, as well as of her first year as a Tri-Delta patroness.

The performance proper followed so fast and furious that it would be impossible to relate all in detail. The guests noted, however, that the Tri-Delta troupe was one of the best of the land. Between acts Guenevere Landis and Elizabeth Walters sold peanuts and popcorn. After the curtain fell the whole party adjourned to the dining room, where they sampled "Tri-Delta Specials."

Among other guests of the evening were Judge C. D. Landis, Mr. Rosa, Dr. and Mrs. Stephens, Mr. R. P. Walters, and Mr. Erskine Landis.

PI BETA PHI GIVES PROGRESSIVE DINNER PARTY

On Tuesday evening, November 9, the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity gave its second annual progressive dinner party, consisting of five courses served at the homes of the town members, Misses Jackson, Hulley, Gardner, Haynes and Mrs. Jordan.

A merry group of thirty-five girls gathered first at the home

KENT CLUB.

The Kent Club held a very interesting meeting last Friday evening, with crowded house and a full program.

The debate of the evening was, Resolved, That Labor Unions are Beneficial to the people of the United States.

Affirmative—W. S. Smith and "Judge" Donovan.

Negative—Longstreet and Leonard.

Judges—Dr. Lampkin, Carver, and Jennings.

Both sides brought out splendid arguments, but the judges gave their decision in favor of the affirmative.

Miss Nell Hathcock gave a reading which was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Lampkin, the well known author of "Our Money," gave a very interesting talk. Club adjourned promptly at eight o'clock.

STETSON LIT.

The Stetson Literary Society met at the usual hour last Friday night and the following program was rendered:

Foreign Current Events—Miss Stallings.

Domestic Current Events—Miss Lewis.

Extempory—Mr. Konig.

Reading—Mr. McBride.

Debate: Resolved, That a Three-fourths vote of a Jury Should Render a Verdict Instead of a Unanimous Vote.

Affirmative—Miss Rudisill, Mr. Prather.

Negative—Miss McHargue, Mr. Shufin.

The Judges decided two to one in favor of the negative.

Parliamentary Practice—Mr. Leisher.

Critics Report—Prof. Baldwin.

EUSOPHIAN.

Those girls not attending "lit" are missing a great opportunity. Stetson has the best readers, singers and entertainers this year that it ever has had and they all belong to Eusophian. Last week we had Ford jokes, and they were a great success. The program for Friday is as follows:—

Foreign Current Events—Mary Reed.

Reading—Reva Fletcher.

Domestic Current Events—Martha Stansfield.

Graduation Essay—Mary Sheppard.

Parliamentary Practice.

VARSITY CLUB NOTES.

The Varsity Club met last Friday evening and an interesting program was given. The program was as follows:—

War Events—William Sale.

Paper on Water Power Projects—Fred Fischer.

Reading—Allen Harris.

An extemporaneous debate was given upon the following subject:—

Resolved, That the President Should Be Elected for One Term and only one term of Six Years.

The affirmative was upheld by Pattishall, Amidon and Ziegler and the negative side of the question by Emerson, Hon and Rasco.

BASKETBALL GAMES STAGED

STETSON VS. OUTLAWS, CONRAD VS. OUTLAWS, AND ELIZABETH VS. OUTLAWS.

Situation Getting Brighter and Brighter—Every Indication of One of the Best Teams in the State.

In a garrison finish the Outlaws landed a victory over the Stetson Hall Quintet, on Thursday, by the score of 23 to 21. The outcome of the contest was not determined until the last few minutes of play, when the Outlaws forged to the front just as the referee's whistle blew for the final count.

The first half closed with Stetson leading 15 to 9; this was due to the good defensive work of the entire Stetson team, especially of Walker and Jack O'Connell, and Miller's good work; also the conspicuous foul tossing of Hon.

The second half was replete with a varied assortment of good basketball which thrilled the spectators to the utmost. The Outlaws who had only shown mediocre form in the first half, came to life in the second half, and by a sensational spurt ultimately succeeded in overcoming their rivals, who had a fairly good lead. The Outlaws' work was a revelation in itself, for they showed a fighting spirit that is worthy of the best of teams playing this favorite indoor sport.

The line-up and summary:—

OUTLAWS	STETSON HALL
Gardner.....	F.....Harkness
Minter.....	F.....Hon
Rutherford.....	C.....Miller
Baskin.....	G.....Walker
Junkin.....	G.....O'Connell
Field Goals—Gardner 2, Minter 3, Rutherford 2, Harkness 1, Hon 3, Miller 3.
Foul Goals—Gardner 2, Rutherford 7, Hon 7.
Referee—William Hollander.
Timekeeper—Fenno.
Scorer—Pattillo.
Time of Halves—20 minutes.

Outlaws vs. Conrad Hall.

In a game of basketball played on Saturday in Cummings Gym, featured by good passing and the extraordinary shooting of the "Bandits," the Conrad Hall team succumbed to the splendid attack of their worthy opponents to the tune of 43 to 29.

The Outlaws went in the lead from the beginning and by playing snappy ball carried the score to 26 points as to 15 for the Conrad team, at the end of the first half.

In the second half the teams played more evenly, and although unnecessary roughness was indulged in by several of the players, the game was a decided improvement over quite a few of the past performances.

The Outlaws proved themselves a formidable aggregation, and each and every player deserves an abundance of credit for the way he handled himself in the game. Minter's shooting was phenomenal, and the work of Gardner at forward was on the sensational order. Rutherford did good work, but not the best he can do by

VESPERS.

A very impressive and beautiful vesper service was held on Sunday afternoon at the regular hour.

The musical number by three members of the faculty so thoroughly enjoyed by all was indeed an evidence of unusual talent on the part of the musicians.

A solo beautifully rendered by Mr. Reimer was a great addition to the service.

The magnificent chrysanthemums on the rostrum, the gift of the Countess, added brightness and cheer to the atmosphere pervading the auditorium.

Dr. Hulley's sermon, always anticipated with a great deal of pleasure, was by no means a departure from the high standard.

The choir, in its beautiful chorus from the Messiah closed the splendid service just as the shades of night began to enfold the light of day.

OPENING GAME.

The opening game of the basketball season will be staged in The Cummings Gym on Thursday the 18th between the Varsity and the Sanford town team. Play will begin at 7 o'clock P. M. sharp. Sanford is reputed to have a very strong team so a battle royal is promised to the lovers of basketball.

This is the first opportunity that the student body will have to show its interest and spirit. Everyone is expected to be present and to cheer on the Varsity to its first triumph.

THE 1916 OSHIHIYI.

The members of the 1916 Oshihiyi Board have commenced their work for this year's annual, and not only the members of the Oshihiyi Board but every Junior is determined to publish an annual not only better than those in past years, but one that is "different." College life will be given more attention than in past years, thus adding interest to the publication. The Editors and Business Managers have their office in the Phi Kappa Delta House, and the Art Editors have their office in the Art Room in Science Hall. It is the plan of the board to have the Oshihiyi published during the Winter Term. This will necessitate the taking of all pictures early.

All classes and organizations have been asked to appoint committees to confer with the Oshihiyi Board with regard to their representation in the Annual.

NOTICE.

In order that good cheering may be evidenced at our games, the following fellows have been selected as cheer leaders, i. e., Johnie Canon, Thomas McIlvaine, Donald Conn and Ralph P. Brown. Cheering practices for the Stetson vs. Sanford game will be held on Monday and Tuesday. All the old fellows should be out to give their pep and knowledge of the yells to the "rats." Let everybody come to practices, and each and every one bring a friend.

Invitations are out for the Annual Phi Kappa Delta Reception, Nov. 13.

TENNIS SINGLES GREAT SUCCESS

FORTY ENTRIES WERE MADE AND SCHEDULE PERFECTLY HANDLED.

Singles Completed Tuesday—Doubles Already Arranged and Will Start This Week—Faculty Team Challenges Winners.

The final scene in the school tennis tournament was presented last Tuesday afternoon when Douglass Roseborough and Paul Northrop met in the finals, the winning of which would entitle the winner to the school championship in singles, at least until another tournament is arranged.

From start to finish the tournament was a success, especially from the point of the spectators. Great credit for this is due to the managers, i. e., Ben Hulley and Paul Northrop, who so arranged the schedule that in nearly every case the respective opponents were very equally matched. Consequently the matches from start to finish held the interest of the student body.

Gradually the weaker players were weeded out and in the semi-finals Lofquist met Northrop while Brass met Roseborough. By a very close margin Northrop and Roseborough weathered the storm only to meet a greater in the finals.

Brilliant playing on the part of both contestants made this match unusually interesting to the large crowd of students and visitors who had gathered to witness it. Northrop succeeded in taking the first three sets, the score being 6-4, 6-3 and 6-3. The score, however, can not be taken as a criterion of the playing exhibited. Deuce games were numerous and every set could have been reversed by an unexpected rally at any time. Both men played hard, steady tennis at all times.

Before the singles were finished a tournament of men's doubles had been arranged, to start immediately upon the completion of the singles. Play begun Thursday. The teams entered so far are: Hon and Peek, Bates and Walker, Brass and Carr, Kennedy and Cook, Konig and Strawn, Dean and Gardner, Starbird and Emerson, Conrad and Haskins, W. McBride and H. Hon, L. Miller and F. McBride, R. Rasco and W. Rasco, Ziegler and Thompson, Gorman and Doss, Northrop and Roseborough, Hulley and Harkness, F. Northrop and B. Northrop, Sander-son and Sales, and G. Rasco and T. Hon.

With this field to pick from many warm contests are assured.

Dr. Hulley and Prof. Blocker have issued a challenge to the winning team in doubles.

Mrs. A. Walker of Tampa, Fla., was a visitor at the University recently, to see her popular young son, Hewett. We look forward with pleasure to more visits from Mrs. Walker during the year.

EDITORIAL.

Many comments favorable and otherwise, have been made as regards our attitude in writing up athletic events. A little explanation of our policy along this line may not be amiss.

As we see it, a college paper should always strive for the betterment of things. On this we are doubtless all agreed, and it is therefore only in our opinions as to how such improvement can be best brought about thru the medium of the school paper that we are not in unison.

After calm deliberation we have decided that the truth is the only policy. When any one deserves credit we will be the first to sing his praises. Naturally the reverse is true. However, criticism will be made only with the idea of making things better. The real man will so consider it. Honest criticism will but spur him on to better things. The fellow who is better fitted to grace a pink tea will be the only one to take it as a personal affront. So be it. We have at least the consoling knowledge that in the long run the greatest good has been done to the greatest number.

Running a college paper to suit everybody is an utter impossibility. This is perfectly self-evident from the very nature of things. In every school there are many organizations and aims, and these oft-times have divergent interests. A paper, being run by poor mortals, will naturally to some extent take its color and tone from preconceived ideas and hobbies of those directing it. There seems but one way of surmounting this difficulty. Every organization, every class, every individual, should try and see that it, hers or his interests should be represented. There is but one way to accomplish this. Lend a hand. See that your interests are represented. Hand in news concerning it. Believe us, news is by no means so plentiful that we can afford to ignore any of it. Hereafter it is up to you. Both as individuals and organizations. Give us your best support and we will unqualifiedly pledge you ours.

Another tournament is on. Doubles are in order. Every tennis player should if possible, secure a partner and enter. Keep things moving. There are many good players in school, and many hotly contested sets will doubtless be played. Dr. Hulley and Prof. Blocker have greatly increased the interest of the tournament by challenging the winners. Well do we remember the time when Florida had humbled our team and the Doctor and the Professor soundly trounced the triumphant 'gators.

of Miss Ruby Jackson, where they were ushered into the dining room and seated at beautifully decorated tables laid for the first course. Scarcely a half hour had elapsed until the scene changed to Miss Louise Hulley's home where the dinner course was served. Miss Frances Gardner was the charming hostess for the salad course. Nine o'clock found the party at the home of Miss Catherine Haynes where the desert course was enjoyed. The affair was brought to a close at the home of Mrs. Jordan, where a beautiful reception was tendered the sorority girls and their rush-ees.

DRAMATICS.

The Green Room Club held its first practice last Monday. Several new comers have made good and have been given parts. There seems to be more enthusiasm in the Club than in former years, and a successful season seems assured.

Doc Maines, now practicing law in Sanford, was in town Tuesday.

Last Sunday afternoon the inmates of South Wing, Conrad, or at least those who happened to be in the building, were royally entertained by Mr. Robert Earnest. A box from home was the center of attraction. It contained everything dear to a boy's stomach from chicken down to cake.

SURF PARTY.

A party of five from Conrad Hall journeyed over to Daytona Beach thru the piney woods last Sunday, and spent the day on the beach. Said party consisted of John Leonardy, Coach Hollander, "Swampy" O'Connell, Billy Burns, and Hewitt Walker. They motored over in Johnny's "Yellow Jacket."

They report a glorious day spent in the surf, riding up and down the sands of the beach, and seeing the sights of Daytona, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze and taking in the Lighthouse. Walker's kodak happened to be carried along with the other equipment and interesting pictures were taken of the party and surrounding scenery in various and sundry (rather sun-

President—Harry S. Klinger.

Vice-President—S. Bryan Jennings.

Secretary—George Coleman.

Treasurer—Miss Herberta Hathcock.

Biscuits are getting to be exceedingly lively in Chaudoin. At least it may be said that one developed certain locomotor traits. Ask Johnny Leonardy, he knows. He said it came home somewhere near his ear. At first he was in doubt whether it was a hornet or an angel.

of Miss Ruth Carpenter last Saturday and Sunday.

TICKETS.

Any one wishing to sell tickets for the opening basketball game will please see Prof. Tingley or Manager Junkin. For every ten sold the seller is to receive one from the Association. The following students have already consented to give their efforts toward making the sale a large one:—

Misses Wyletta Elliott, Sarah Smith, Hazel Fisk, Herberta Hathcock and Florence Gregory; also Messrs. William Emerson, Arvid Peterson, Milton Perry and Orville Fuller.

The Association is very desirous of selling at least two hundred tickets before the night of the game.

Cain and John Cannon spent the week-end in the old town of Palatka. They returned for classes Monday without any disagreeable mishap.

Miss Elio Harris has moved to the residence of Dr. W. S. Taylor on New York Avenue.

Hazel Fisk spent last week end as the guest of Miss Katherine Carpenter.

Arius Prather and Winfred Liddell were among the Stetson men at the Florida-Georgia football game in Jacksonville. They visited Bill Dincen and George Everson in Palatka.

Poetry has its "Chambered Nautilus" and now the moving picture world has its "Neptune's Daughter," Annette Kellerman, the wonderful woman diver from Australia, has certainly starred this play. We enjoyed this fairy production of sea and mermaids and forest dances at the Princess Theatre last Saturday night.—Adv.

Miss Mary Frances Ross is visiting Miss Marie Russell Stephens.

Harry G. Taylor, a last year's law student returning from a business trip to Jacksonville, spent Sunday night in Conrad Hall with old "pals." Next morning he breakfasted over in Chaudoin on eternal grits and everlasting potatoes. Harry welcomed those old standbys with open arms and a capacious maw. He left town soon after. Reasons why are at variance.

Mr. Carl Farriss, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, in an Atlanta Hospital, is reported to be doing nicely. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Hewett Walker was the host at a delightful dinner party at the Putnam Inn last Saturday. A cloud of mystery surrounds the affair, but we have our suspicions.

The scholarship cup for 1914-1915 was won by the Sigma Nu Fraternity with the highest average ever recorded in the contest. Their mark of 80.59 considerably ranks the non-fraternity average or the sororities.—Vanderbilt Hustler.

Mr. Doyle Carleton, '09, a prominent attorney of Tampa, Fla., was a week end visitor at the Phi Kap House this week.

far. Junkin and Baskin acquitted themselves in splendid style.

The Conrad team deserves much credit for its efforts. Inefficient shooting ability was the cause of their downfall; also the inability of the guards to cover their men properly. Hon, Jennings and Curran did practically all the scoring for their fives. Hon's foul shooting was a feature, as was that of his rival, Gardner.

The line-up and Summary:—

OUTLAWS	CONRAD
Gardner.....	F.....Hon
Minter.....	F.....Crim
Rutherford.....	C.....Jennings
Baskin.....	G.....Hodgden
Junkin.....	G.....Curran

Field Goals—Gardner 5, Minter 6, Rutherford 6, Baskins 1, Junkins 1, Hon 3, Curran 4, Jennings 2, Hodgden 1.

Foul Goals—Gardner 7, Hon 9.
Referee—Ghee, Clemson University.

Timer—Fenno.
Scorer—Pattillo.

Outlaws vs. Elizabeth Hall.

Tuesday night the Outlaws met and conquered the Elizabeth Hall Five in the best game of basketball staged at Cummings' Gymnasium this year. The game was full of sensational plays of all descriptions. The final score was 37 to 31.

The passing was the best seen this year and the shooting was up to par. The individual work of Walker, Jack O'Connell, Min-Hulley, Rutherford, Fenno, and Gillen was extraordinary. In fact, every participant did good work. This game was a nip and tuck affair, and only by masterly passing and ability to take advantage of the many opportunities to cage baskets, did the Bandits vanquish their foe.

After having indulged in a very lively battle the first half came to a close with the score standing 14 to 13 in favor of the Outlaws. During this half, the shooting of Gillen was exceptionally good as was that of Gardner and Minter. Two shots by "Snooks" Gardner were sensational—both being beyond foul line and both going through the basket like an eel through a net.

During the second half matters were made extremely lively, the Elizabeth squad came within striking distance but were not able to pass their rivals.

Rutherford's shooting was the principal factor of the Outlaws victory. He scored a total of 15 points—7 field goals and a free toss. Gardner was a close second with 14 points. For Elizabeth Hon, Gillen, Hulley and Peterson did practically all the scoring. Jack O'Connell took Gillen's place during the latter part of the second half and distinguished himself by playing a sterling game.
